

Task 2

(Situational role play)

You are expecting an American exchange student from Florida who is going to stay with you for the next school year. Now you are talking to her on the phone and she is asking questions about the weather in different seasons. Tell her:

- about the differences between the climate of your and her country
- what clothes to wear (summer / winter)
- the free-time activities in winter

Your examiner will start the discussion.

Task 2

(Situational role play)

Your friend (whose role will be played by the examiner) is overweight. She wants to lose weight and she is asking you for advice. Tell her:

- what to eat
- what to drink
- about the importance of doing sports
- invite her to swim with you every Saturday

Your examiner will start the discussion.

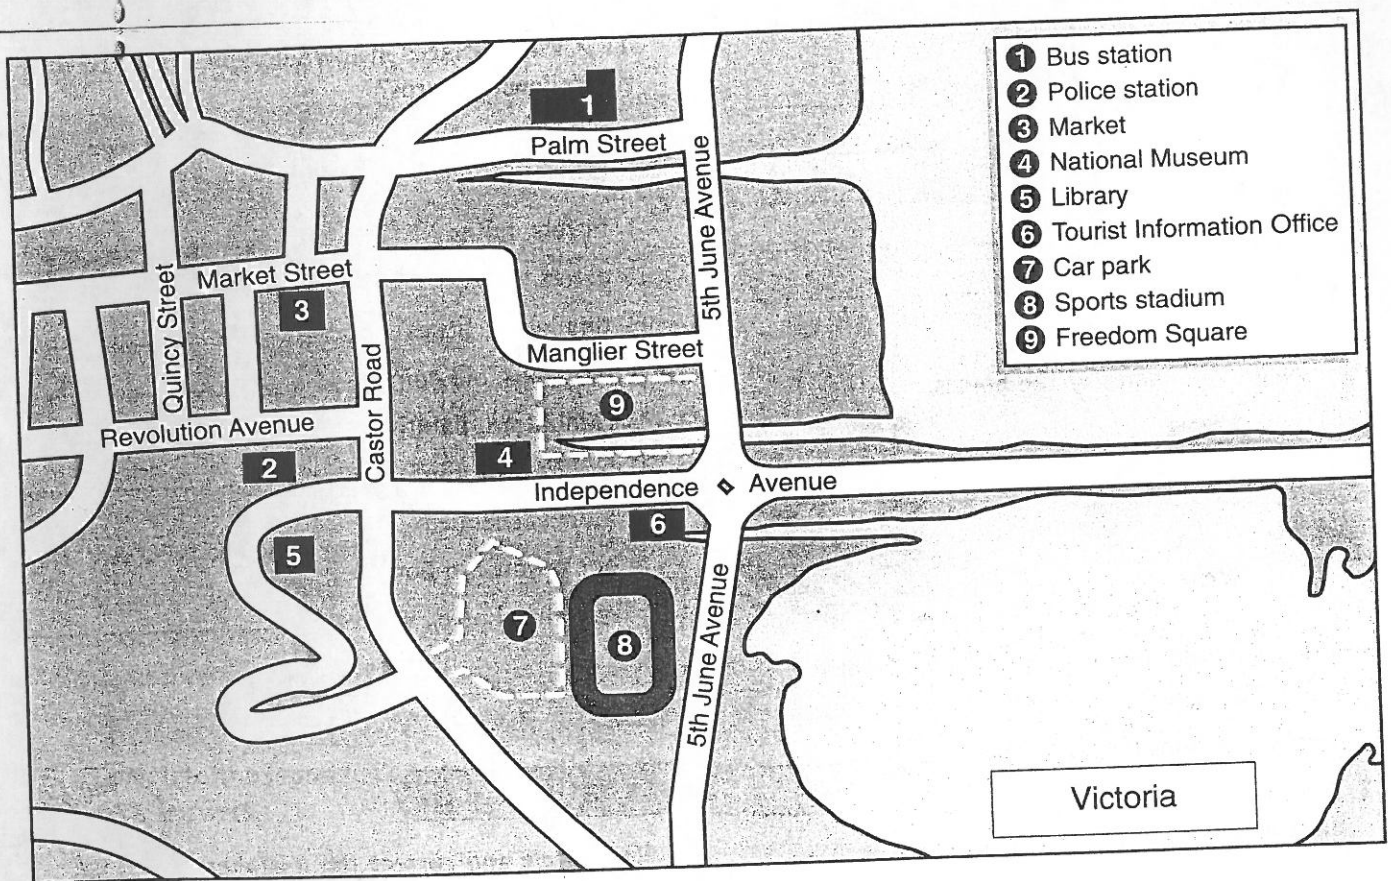

Task 2

(Situational role play)

You are in the street and an English tourist stops you to ask for directions. Tell her:

- where you are now
- explain how she can get to the place where she wants to go
- tell her where she can buy a map.

Your examiner will start the discussion.

Task 2

(Situational role play)

You are studying in England and staying with a host family. You are talking to them about your own family. Answer the questions about:

- your family members (age / job / hobby)
- house
- pets

Your examiner will start the discussion.